

Annette St. Onge, owner of Your Town Florist, delivered a bouquet of flowers to Vaughn Hall on Saturday in honor of the opening of the Scottish Diaspora Tapestry. She met Betty and Blanche dressed in their best Scottish plaids for the day. The tapestry is on exhibit through July 31 and is free. Hours are weekdays 10 to 2 and weekends 10 to 4. Scottish country dancers entertained visitors to Scottish Fest, while clan tents provided information about Scottish family lines.

Scottish heritage is celebrated in Montello at Scottish Fest & opening of Tapestry exhibit

A collection of 304 hand-stitched tapestry panels, created by people all over the world, are now on display at Vaughn Hall in downtown Montello. The panels depict the accomplishments of Scots who emigrated around the world - and two panels were created right here in Marquette County!

Jeff Growel presented the story of Celtic history and weaponry through the years.

Music entertainment at Rendezvous Paddle & Sports was provided by the folk band "Flip of the Coin."
